A caravan is a group of travelers, journeying together for safety and fellowship, seeking a clear destination of hope, promise and prosperity. This was clearly the purpose of the magi, the three Kings, as they followed a common dream to seek out and find the promised Christ, the King of the universe, the source and summit of all life-giving love. And were they not surprised to find the Christ in a cave, a stable for housing and feeding animals, and to find the Holy Child himself lying in a manger, a feeding trough? And were they not then able, when peering into the eyes of this child, to see the very source of their own being, to witness to the incredible mystery of God's love, manifested in both a vast and glorious universe and in a fragile helpless child wrapped in swaddling? And, in this encounter with Pure love, were they not transformed themselves, moved to share their gifts, and excited to go home to share the witness of their encounter with the Holy child?

Una caravana es un grupo de viajeros, que caminan juntos por seguridad y para acompañarse entre ellos, buscan un destino de esperanza, promesa y prosperidad. Este fue claramente el propósito de los tres Reyes Magos, ya que siguieron un sueño común de buscar y encontrar al Cristo prometido, el rey del universo, la fuente y la cumbre de todo amor que da vida. ¿Y no creen que se sorprendieron al encontrar a Cristo en una cueva, un establo de animales, y al encontrar al Santo Niño en un pesebre, en un abrevadero? Fue entonces cuando, al mirar a los ojos de este niño, vieron la fuente de su propio ser, dieron testimonio del increíble misterio del amor de Dios, manifestado tanto en un vasto y glorioso universo como en un frágil niño indefenso envuelto en pañales. Y, en este encuentro de amor puro, ¿no se transformaron, no se conmovieron a compartir sus dones y se emocionaron en volver a casa para compartir el testimonio de su encuentro con el Santo Niño?

National Migration Week / Semana Nacional del Migrante

Today there are caravans of people—mothers, fathers, children—seeking a destination of hope, promise and prosperity in countries willing to welcome them. In many cases, they flee war and oppression. Those who make their way from Central America to the U.S. are often fleeing violence and the all too real danger of death. They are fleeing the threats of gangs who are able to prosper because the demand for drugs in the U.S. is so high. Some are fleeing because there are no legal jobs, nothing to sustain their families. What parent would not do everything in their power to assure that their spouse and children are safe and provided for? And they come, not for a handout, but for a hand to help them up so that they can offer their gifts of labor, creativity, faith and culture to the communities in which they will live.

Today there are caravans of Catholic Christians journeying together as members of parishes and as clusters of parishes, joined in fellowship, mutual support and outreach to the poor and marginalized, seeking a destination of hope, promise and prosperity in the heart of God. They find security in each other, in their sharing of the Word, in their receiving the body and blood of Christ, and in their common goal and desire to be the body and blood of Christ for their families, friends, co-workers and classmates, and for those poor and needy marginalized and oppressed by circumstance, society and the sins of others.

This week the U.S. church celebrates national migration week, recognizing the millions of people fleeing war, oppression, gang violence, genocide and famine to find a better life for their families. For us as Catholics, all three of these caravans merge today with one common goal: to continue our journey to seek out the one who is there to guide us, accompany us, the one who chooses us, blesses us, breaks us open to fill us with the Holy Spirit, and who then invites us to pour out our gifts—our time, talent and treasure—to help others in greater need than ourselves. We need to resist any efforts to separate, incarcerate or turn away families who are simply seeking our welcome, ready to offer their gifts to support their families, our church families and our communities.

Will we welcome them?

—Rev. Larry Dowling

Hoy en día hay caravanas de personas—madres, padres, niños—que buscan un destino de esperanza, promesa y prosperidad en países dispuestos a recibirlas. En muchos casos, huyen de la guerra y la opresión. Aquellos que caminan desde centroamérica hacia los Estados Unidos a menudo huyen de la violencia y del peligro de la muerte. Huyen de las amenazas de pandillas que prosperan porque la demanda de drogas en los Estados Unidos es muy alta. Algunos huyen porque no hay empleos legales, ni manera alguna de sustentar a sus familias. ¿Qué padre no haría todo lo que estaba a su alcance para garantizar que su cónyuge e hijos estén a salvo y tengan lo necesario para sobrevivir? Y vienen, no en busca de limosna, sino para ofrecer sus dones de trabajo, creatividad, fe y cultura a las comunidades en las que vivirán.

Hoy hay caravanas de Cristianos Católicos que caminan juntos como miembros de parroquias y como grupos de parroquias, unidos en comunión, apoyo mutuo y dando una mano a los pobres y marginados, en busca de un destino de esperanza, promesa y prosperidad en el corazón de Dios. Encuentran seguridad entre sí, al compartir la Palabra, al recibir el cuerpo y la sangre de Cristo, en su objetivo común y el deseo de ser el cuerpo y la sangre de Cristo para sus familias, amigos, compañeros de trabajo y compañeros de clase, y para los pobres y necesitados marginados y oprimidos por las circunstancias, la sociedad y los pecados de los demás.

Esta semana, la iglesia de los Estados Unidos celebra la semana nacional del migrante, reconociendo a los millones de personas que huyen de la guerra, la opresión, la violencia de las pandillas, el genocidio y el hambre por encontrar una vida mejor para sus familias. Para nosotros como Católicos, estas tres caravanas se fusionan hoy con un objetivo común: continuar nuestro viaje para buscar a aquel que está allí para guiarnos, acompañarnos, aquel que nos elige, nos bendice, nos abre el corazón para llenarnos con el Espíritu Santo, y que luego nos invita a derramar nuestros dones, nuestro tiempo, talento y tesoro, para ayudar a otros con mayor necesidad. Necesitamos resistir cualquier esfuerzo de separar, encarcelar o rechazar a las familias que simplemente buscan nuestra bienvenida, listos para ofrecer sus dones para apoyar a nuestras familias, a las familias de nuestras iglesias y a nuestras comunidades.

¿Les daremos la bienvenida?

—Rev. Larry Dowling

If you are a parish family with a child nearing school age, or are considering their receiving the sacraments of Reconciliation and First Communion, who has NOT been baptized, we are looking to meet and greet you!

On January 13, 2019, at 3:30 pm, we are planning to celebrate the Baptism of these youngsters, and we invite you to learn more about this celebration. We are seeking families with children under the age of 8 years of age. Our plan is to identify these children and families, offer a family baptism preparation program prior to that date, and ensure the children are ready for this important ceremony on January 13, 2019, the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord.

Families with infants will continue to participate in the monthly group baptisms. Families with children older than 8 years are welcome to contact us, though a different process will be needed, given their age.

Both English and Spanish language families are welcome, as the ceremony will be bilingual. Please contact Mary Burke-Peterson at 773.209.5114 or mburkepete@gmail.com or Alejandra Lule 847.864.1185 or alule@nickchurch.org in the parish office with questions or to enroll in this program.

There is no fee to participate in this program.

Si usted es una familia (parroquial) con un niño que se aproxima a la edad escolar, o está considerando recibir los sacramentos de Reconciliación y Primera Comunión, que NO ha sido bautizado, ¡estamos esperando para conocerlo y saludarlo!

El 13 de enero de 2019, a las 3:30 pm, planeamos celebrar el Bautismo de estos jóvenes y lo invitamos a conocer más sobre esta celebración. Buscamos familias con niños menores de 8 años. Nuestro plan es identificar a estos niños y familias, ofrecer un programa de preparación para el bautismo familiar antes de esa fecha y asegurarnos de que los niños estén listos para esta ceremonia importante el 13 de enero de 2019, la Fiesta del Bautismo del Señor.

Las familias con bebés continuarán participando en los bautismos grupales mensuales. Las familias con niños mayores de 8 años pueden comunicarse con nosotros, aunque será necesario un proceso diferente, dada su edad.

Tanto las familias en inglés como en español son bienvenidas, ya que la ceremonia será bilingüe.

Comuníquese con Mary Burke-Peterson al 773.209.5114 o mburkepete@gmail.com o con Alejandra Lule 847.864.1185 o alule@nickchurch.org en la oficina parroquial si tiene preguntas o para inscribirse en este programa.

No hay cuota para participar en este programa.
