All are Welcome

We are the Body of Christ at St. Nicholas.
Grounded in our diversity,
we gather for worship,
cherish the traditions of our Catholic faith, witness to the Gospel of Jesus, minister to others, and live as Christians in the world.

Todos son Bienvenidos

Somos el Cuerpo de Cristo en San Nicolás.
Fundados en nuestra diversidad, nos reunimos para adoración, apreciamos las tradiciones de nuestra fe católica, damos testimonio del Evangelio de Jesús, servimos en ministerio a los demás,
y vivimos como cristianos en el mundo.

From the Pastor / Del Párroco

Dear St. Nicholas Family,

Each day of the first week of ‘stay-at-home’ I spent about an hour or so walking the neighborhood with our community’s Lenten cross. It seemed to grow heavier each day. The tradition of blessing the neighborhood is uncommon in our country, yet a long standing one. A Eucharistic procession on Holy Thursday, the Corpus Christi benediction altars, or the Good Friday Stations of the Cross are ways familiar to us. Many places throughout the world celebrate feast days, holy days, civil holidays, and saint’s days with processions of various kinds. This week was unusual because we are in extraordinary times.

As a way of blessing our tiny part of the world, I visited the sectors of our parish day by day (one day up to Emerson into St. Mary’s territory!) I prayed silently the rosary and offered prayers for the five intentions marked out in this Coronavirus struggle: 1) those who have contracted it, 2) brave health care workers, 3) faithful fire fighters, police and first responders, 4) world leaders and people of all nations, and 5) for those who have died.

I prayed for families and elderly living alone behind the closed doors. It was not unlike a pilgrimage-completely trusting what may happen realizing the road is made by going. Some dogs with those gut wrenching barks scared me. I did see some joyful St. Nick’s folks, but most people I had never met. I asked some folks if they had special prayer intentions – many said “for all of this – for all of the people.” They seemed overwhelmed at our current world reality. Some ignored me, some avoided me, a few asked for a blessing, someone yelled from a car: “Jesus, I thought you were dead” and another “are you going to die?” and gave me the thumbs up when I said no – well yes eventually. I found streets I never knew existed and sadly closed businesses. People were eerily calm – even as children played. Some appeared like they were just going through the motions. So this is ‘typical’ life in the midst of a crisis!

Always grateful when someone would say “Amen” or “Praised be God” or “keep going” helped me forget the uncertainty of virus life. My greeting would typically be “God bless you”- some people did not know how to respond, some said thank you, some smiled. A few sore shoulder muscles were an unsuspecting penance. Life is a journey and those of you much braver than I who have walked El Camino de Santiago have shared the amazing encounters along the way. But doesn’t each day offer us opportunities to encounter when we pay attention? Perhaps some of the gift of this crisis is that we pur-

Estimada familia de San Nicolás:

Cada día de la primera semana de ‘quedarse-en-casa’ pasé aproximadamente una hora caminando por el vecindario con la cruz de Cuaresma de nuestra comunidad. Parecía hacerse más pesado cada día. La tradición de bendecir al vecindario es poco común en nuestro país, pero es muy antigua. Una procesión eucarística el Jueves Santo, los altares de bendición del Corpus Christi o las Estaciones de la Cruz del Viernes Santo son formas familiares para nosotros. Muchos lugares en todo el mundo celebran fiestas, días santos, fiestas civiles y días de los santos con procesiones de diversos tipos. Esta semana fue inusual porque estamos en tiempos extraordinarios.

Como una forma de bendecir nuestra pequeña parte del mundo, visité los sectores de nuestra parroquia día a día (¡un día hasta la Emerson en el territorio de St. Mary!) Recé en silencio el rosario y ofrecí oraciones por las cinco intenciones marcadas en esta lucha de la Coronavirus: 1) los que lo han contractado, 2) los valientes trabajadores de la salud, 3) los bomberos fieles, la policía y los socorristas, 4) los líderes mundiales y las personas de todas las naciones, y 5) por los que han muerto.

Oré por familias y ancianos que vivían solos a puerta cerrada. No fue diferente a una peregrinación, confiando completamente en lo que puede suceder al darse cuenta de que el camino se hace según caminamos. Algunos perros con esos desgarradores ladridos me asustaron. Vi a algunas personas alegres de San Nicolás, pero la mayoría de las personas nunca los había conocido. Le pregunté a algunas personas si tenían intenciones especiales de oración, muchos dijeron “por todo esto, por toda la gente.” Parecían abrumados por nuestra realidad mundial actual. Algunos me ignoraron, algunos me evitaron, algunos pidieron una bendición, alguien gritó desde un automóvil: “Jesús, pensé que estabas muerto” y otro “¿vas a morir?” y me dio la vista buena cuando dije que no, bueno, sí, eventualmente. Encontré calles que nunca supe que existían y tristemente negocios cerrados. La gente estaba extrañamente tranquila, incluso cuando los niños jugaban. Algunos parecían estar pasando el tiempo en monotonía. ¡Así que esta es la vida “típica” en medio de una crisis!

Siempre agradecido cuando alguien decía “Amén” o “Alabado sea Dios” o “seguir adelante” me ayudó a olvidar la incertidumbre de la vida del virus. Mi saludo normalmente sería “Dios te bendiga” - algunas personas no sabían cómo responder, algunas dijeron gracias, otras sonrieron. Algunos dolores en los hombros fueron una penitencia desprevénida. La vida es un viaje y aquellos de ustedes mucho más valientes que yo que han caminado por El Camino de Santiago han compartido los asombrosos encuentros en el camino.

From the Pastor / Del Párroco

posefully stop, look, and listen while we are on the journey. A closeness even at a physical distance opens us to new horizons.

Palm Sunday is here, void of palms and rituals, yet it is here. The triumphal greeting of Jesus in Jerusalem amid the secret plotting to kill him opens this week. The cross looms large this entire week both in the Scriptures and in our daily lives with Coronavirus. As we revisit his story, it is clear that we are writing a new story this year for the children to tell their children. The cross brings hope – and eventually victory. Pope Francis said last November: “Hope is this living in tension, always; knowing that we cannot make a nest here: the life of the Christian is in a forward-moving tension.” This is an appropriate perspective for this Holy Week because of Jesus’ living here while focused on his destiny – Jerusalem, his Passion and the eternal Jerusalem. Perhaps more dramatically than at any time in our lives, there is the tension of uncertainty and certitude. We are floating, but we are also anchored in Jesus Christ.

Let us sing Hosanna this day in solidarity with all other Christians throughout the world. May Jesus’ human courage motivate us to be courageous in these times. As Isaiah the prophet said “The Lord is my help, therefore I am not disgraced; I have set my face like flint, knowing that I shall not be put to shame.” Like Jesus, God is our help and our focal point, at this time and at all times. I was aware of God’s help for the people of our neighborhood when I carried the Lenten processional cross in our streets. I meditated upon the years of Lenten processions in our church and its stately presence on the altar platform in the center of the church. It became like a ‘witness stone’ where so many prayers, hymns, homilies, conversations and rituals took place – full of memories. I felt as though all of you were with me on the streets and in each greeting. May you accompany Jesus this Holy Week. Read the Scriptures as you follow live-streamed Masses or while Zooming with a few others from your Lenten groups. Allow the emptiness of physical closeness be filled by the intimacy of Christ who reigns for ever and ever. May you be strengthened as you read in Matthew’s Passion Gospel: “Truly, this was the Son of God.” (Mt. 27:54)

Peace of Christ,
Fr. Joseph Tito

¿Pero no nos ofrece cada día oportunidades para encontrarnos cuando prestamos atención? Quizás parte del don de esta crisis es que nos detenemos, miramos y escuchamos a propósito mientras estamos en el viaje. Una cercanía incluso a una distancia física nos abre a nuevos horizontes.

El Domingo de Ramos está aquí, sin palmas y rituales, pero está aquí. El saludo triunfal de Jesús en Jerusalén en medio del complot secreto para matarlo se abre esta semana. La cruz se acerca esta semana entera tanto en las Escrituras como en nuestra vida diaria con Coronavirus. A medida que revisamos su historia, está claro que este año estamos escribiendo una nueva historia para que los niños la cuenten. La cruz trae esperanza, y eventualmente victoria. El Papa Francisco dijo en noviembre pasado: “La esperanza es vivir en tensión, siempre; sabiendo que no podemos hacer un nido aquí: la vida del cristiano está en una tensión progresiva.” Esta es una perspectiva apropiada para esta Semana Santa porque Jesús vivió aquí mientras estaba enfocado en su destino: Jerusalén, su Pasión y la Jerusalén eterna. Quizás más dramáticamente que en cualquier otro momento de nuestras vidas, existe la tensión de la incertidumbre y la certeza. Estamos flotando, pero también estamos anclados en Jesucristo.

Cantemos hoy Hosanna en solidaridad con todos los demás cristianos del mundo. Que el coraje humano de Jesús nos motive a ser valientes en estos tiempos. Como dijo el profeta Isaías “El Señor es mi ayuda, por lo tanto no estoy en desgracia; He puesto mi cara como pedernal, sabiendo que no me avergonzarán.” Al igual que Jesús, Dios es nuestra ayuda y nuestro punto focal, en este momento y en todo momento. Estaba consciente de la ayuda de Dios para la gente de nuestro vecindario cuando cargué la cruz procesional de Cuaresma en nuestras calles. Medité sobre los años de procesiones cuaresmales en nuestra iglesia y su presencia majestuosa en la plataforma del altar en el centro de la iglesia. Se convirtió en una “piedra testigo” donde se llevaron a cabo tantas oraciones, himnos, homilias, conversaciones y rituales, llenos de recuerdos. Sentí como si todos ustedes estuvieran conmigo en las calles y en cada saludo. Que acompañes a Jesús esta Semana Santa; lean las Escrituras mientras siguen la Misa transmitidas en vivo o mientras hacen Zoom con algunos otros de sus grupos Cuaresmales. Permitan que el vacío de cercanía física se llene con la intimidad de Cristo que reina por los siglos de los siglos. Que se fortalezcan al leer el Evangelio de la Pasión de Mateo: “En verdad, este era el Hijo de Dios.” (Mt 27:54)

Paz de Cristo,
Padre Joseph Tito

Peace and good wishes to you during this challenging time. It's Mike McCauley, the Parish Counselor, writing to see how everyone is doing... and to share some ideas about the ways in which I'm helping parishioners who desire counseling during the coronavirus outbreak.

Starting this week, I've begun to offer “virtual” psychotherapy sessions via Zoom video conferencing, and over the phone when people are more comfortable talking in that way. If you find a need for counseling, and are interested in working in this fashion, I do have some openings at present. Since I'm not driving to my parishes, or to Claret Center, my time is now a bit more flexible. Mindful of the difficulties everyone is having with day-to-day life right now, I can offer my services on a sliding scale... with reduced-fee sessions that are affordable for everyone. So, if you would like to talk, or to explore whether counseling might be helpful for you, please feel free to call or write. Take care, and stay well!
