A Note from / Una Nota de Gail Hulse, Pope John XXIII School Principal

Taught and Nourished

It is most likely no surprise that my thoughts at this time do not stray far from children and teaching and our parish school, Pope John XXIII. Today's readings are filtered through my perspective as a Catholic school leader and educator. They have been amplified by speakers at the Archdiocesan Principals' Leadership Day which opened this new school year. I hope that I can convey through these thoughts the passion and commitment concerning the "Good News" of today's readings as they infuse the teaching of our children.

Our second reading speaks to us about anger. Anger seems to surround us lately. There is no one who does not feel justified in his/her anger. Each one of us can retell the story that has led us to our righteous anger. Yet we are told "…All bitterness, fury, anger, shouting, and reviling must be removed from you along with all malice. And be kind to one another, compassionate, forgiving one another as God has forgiven you in Christ." A tall order. In an adaptation from the writings of St. Francis de Sales, the author suggests that "When your mind is tranquil, build up a stock of gentleness… Remain in peace." We are called to practice the freedom of the children of God who know they are loved. God always loves us even in our weakest moments. We must do likewise, first with ourselves and then with others.

How is this possible? How do we get through our weakest moments? How do we walk united in gentleness, compassion and forgiveness? I propose that a dual answer is in today's readings. We survive our weaknesses and learn to love ourselves and others as God does because we "…shall all be taught by God. Then, having been taught by God, the children of God freely choose to follow the known will of their heavenly Father who nourishes them with the Bread of Life, his Son, Jesus."

We listen to the lessons of the Bible and it gives us good news of hope, forgiveness and love. The angel tells Elijah "Get up and eat, else the journey will be too long for you!" He got up, ate, and drank; then strengthened by that food, he walked forty days and forty nights to the mountain of God, Horeb. "It has been pointed out that God doesn't remove hardship in answer to our prayers. Rather, he gives us the strength to endure and move through hardship. God sent the angel to Elijah with

Enseñar y Alimentar

Lo más probable es que no sorprenda que mis pensamientos en este momento no se alejen mucho de los niños y la enseñanza y de nuestra escuela parroquial, Pope John XXIII. Las lecturas de hoy están filtradas desde mi perspectiva como líder y educador de la escuela católica. Han sido amplificados por oradores en el Día de Liderazgo de los Directores de la Arquidiócesis, que abrió este nuevo año escolar. Espero poder transmitir a través de estos pensamientos la pasión y el compromiso con respecto a las "Buenas Nuevas" de las lecturas de hoy, ya que infunden la enseñanza de nuestros hijos.

Nuestra segunda lectura nos habla sobre la ira. La ira parece rodearnos últimamente. No hay nadie que no se sienta justificado en su enojo. Cada uno de nosotros puede volver a contar la historia que nos ha llevado a nuestra justa ira. Sin embargo, nos dicen "... Toda la amargura, la furia, la ira, los gritos y los ultrajes deben ser eliminados de ti junto con toda malicia. Y sean amables unos con otros, compasivos, perdonándose los unos a los otros como Dios los ha perdonado en Cristo." Una orden difícil. En una adaptación de los escritos de San Francisco de Sales, el autor sugiere que "Cuando tu mente esté tranquila, construye una reserva de dulzura ... Permanece en paz." Estamos llamados a practicar la libertad de los hijos de Dios que saben que son amados. Dios siempre nos ama incluso en nuestros momentos más débiles. Debemos hacer lo mismo, primero con nosotros mismos y luego con los demás.

¿Cómo es esto posible? ¿Cómo pasamos nuestros momentos más débiles? ¿Cómo caminamos unidos en la mansedumbre, la compasión y el perdón? Propongo que una respuesta doble está en las lecturas de hoy. Sobrevivimos a nuestras debilidades y aprendemos a amarnos a nosotros mismos y a los demás como lo hace Dios porque "... todos serán enseñados por Dios. Luego, habiendo sido enseñados por Dios, los hijos de Dios eligen libremente seguir la voluntad conocida de su Padre celestial que los alimenta con el Pan de Vida, su Hijo, Jesús."

Escuchamos las lecciones de la Biblia y nos da buenas noticias de esperanza, perdón y amor. El ángel le dice a Elijah: "Levántate y come, de lo contrario el viaje será demasiado largo para ti." Se levantó, comió y bebió; luego fortalecido por esa comida, caminó cuarenta días y cuarenta noches hasta la montaña de Dios, Horeb. "Se ha señalado que Dios no elimina las dificultades en respuesta a nuestras oraciones. Por el contrario, nos da la fuerza para soportar y avanzar a través de las dificultades. Dios envió el ángel a Elías con pan y bebida. Él envió maná a bread and drink. He sent manna to the Israelites in the desert. He sent Jesus, the bread and drink of everlasting life to us.

We are taught and we are nourished. We journey through our weakest moments. And so as we begin this new school year, every day we will tell our students, "God loves you". We will remind each other every day, "They shall all be taught by God." We will recall the angel's words, "Get up and eat or the journey will be too long." and we will find strength in the Eucharist. What gifts to receive each day. Finally, we will celebrate with you the great gift we have in this community with this Catholic school. Every lesson is imparted with humility in our weakness and joy in our strength. We are the school of St. Nicholas and St. Mary parish. It is a blessing we treasure and welcome each of you to share with us in the year ahead.

los israelitas en el desierto. Él envió a Jesús, el pan y la bebida de la vida eterna para nosotros.

Nos enseñan y nos nutrimos. Viajamos a través de nuestros momentos más débiles. Y así, al comenzar este nuevo año escolar, todos los días les diremos a nuestros alumnos: "Dios te ama." Nos recordaremos todos los días: "Todos serán enseñados por Dios." Recordaremos las palabras del ángel: "Levántate y come, o el viaje será demasiado largo," y encontraremos fortaleza en la Eucaristía. Qué regalos recibir cada día. Finalmente, celebraremos con usted el gran regalo que tenemos en esta comunidad con esta escuela católica. Cada lección se imparte con humildad en nuestra debilidad y alegría en nuestra fuerza. Somos la escuela de las parroquias de San Nicolás y Santa María. Es una bendición que atesoramos y damos la bienvenida a cada uno de ustedes para que comparta con nosotros en el próximo año.

THIS WEEK'S SECOND COLLECTION is for Haiti Scholarship, Sharing Parish, World Mission Sunday and the Church in Latin America.
August 11-12

The Haiti scholarships help deserving students from our sister parish, St. Anne in Limonade, go back to school this fall. In the past we have sponsored 12 students to help pay tuition. For questions or to sponsor a student, contact Rosalie Selinger Murphy, rosaliemurphy731@outlook.com.

The Sharing Parishes funds help our sister parishes in Mexico, Haiti and St. Henry in Chicago.

As we pray and respond on World Mission Sunday here at home, we share in those celebrations taking place in every parish, seminary, school and convent all over the world. This fund helps support those missions and the propagation of faith.

Your support for the Church in Latin America helps ensure the availability of adequate catechesis, marriage and family life programs, and religious and seminarian formation.

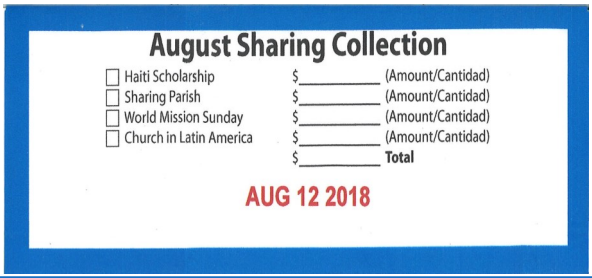
Thank you for your generosity toward all these collections.

Gracias a su apoyo, la colecta de Becas para Haití, ayuda a una docena de estudiantes de nuestra parroquia hermana Sta. Anna en Limonade, Haití con becas escolares. Con preguntas o para patrocinar a un estudiante, comuníquese con Rosalie Selinger Murphy, rosaliemurphy731@outlook.com.

Las Parroquias Compartidas ayudan a las iglesias hermanas en México, Haití y St. Henry en Chicago.

Mientras oramos y respondemos en el Domingo de la Misión Mundial aquí en casa, compartimos las celebraciones que tienen lugar en cada parroquia, seminario, escuela y convento de todo el mundo. Este fondo ayuda a apoyar esas misiones y la propagación de fe.

Colecta para la Iglesia en América Latina ayuda asegurará la disponibilidad de una catequesis apropiada, de programas para el matrimonio y la vida familiar y la formación de religiosos y seminaristas.



Muchas gracias por aprovechar de esta oportunidad para compartir su fe.

A man wakes up after sleeping under an ADVERTISED blanket on an ADVERTISED mattress and pulls off ADVERTISED pajamas bathes in an ADVERTISED shower shaves with an ADVERTISED razor brushes his teeth
with ADVERTISED toothpaste washes with ADVERTISED soap puts on ADVERTISED clothes drinks a cup of ADVERTISED coffee
drives to work in an ADVERTISED car and then . . . .
refuses to ADVERTISE
believing it doesn't pay.
