Update from the RMC Communications Team

*"Throw open the windows of the church and let the fresh air of the Spirit blow through."
St. John XXIII*

Actualización del equipo de comunicación del RMI

*"Abrid de par en par las ventanas de la iglesia y dejad que entre el aire fresco del Espíritu".
San Juan XXIII*

Here are seven interesting facts about St.
John XXIII

He aquí siete datos interesantes sobre
San Juan XXIII

- ..# Born Angelo Giuseppe Roncalli on Nov 25, 1881, in Sotto il Monte, he was one of 13 children in a family of poor sharecroppers. The family's greatest wealth was their undisputed faith, charity, and absolute trust in God, and their daily prayers and devotion made an early impression on the young boy.
 - ..# Before he was chosen as Pope, he served as a Vatican diplomat. During this time, he worked with the Jewish underground to help thousands of Jews escape the Holocaust.
 - ..# When elected Pope in 1958 after eleven ballots, he was expected by many to be a caretaker Pope. Instead, he convened the Second Vatican Council, which made sweeping changes to the Church, ushering it into the modern era.
 - ..# During the Cuban missile crisis, Pope John XXIII publicly urged both President Kennedy and Premier Khrushchev to exercise restraint. Khrushchev later admitted that this message helped him to decide to withdraw the missiles and defuse the crisis.
 - ..# Pope John XXIII was Time magazine's Man of the Year in 1962.
 - ..# He was known for his sense of humor. In answering a journalist who innocently asked, "How many people work in the Vatican?", His Holiness replied "About half of them."
 - ..# He is still known to many as Il Papa Buono, "The Good Pope."
- St. John XXIII, pray for us!
- In Christ's peace,
- Jay Larmee, Shelley Benson, Rob Sullivan, and Derrick Blakley

- ..# Nacido como Angelo Giuseppe Roncalli el 25 de noviembre de 1881 en Sotto il Monte, era uno de los 13 hijos de una familia de aparceros pobres. La mayor riqueza de la familia era su indiscutible fe, su caridad y su absoluta confianza en Dios, y sus oraciones diarias y su devoción causaron una temprana impresión en el joven.
- ..# Antes de ser elegido Papa, ejerció como diplomático del Vaticano. Durante este tiempo, trabajó con la resistencia judía para ayudar a miles de judíos a escapar del Holocausto.
- ..# Cuando fue elegido Papa en 1958 tras once votaciones, muchos esperaban que fuera un Papa interino. En cambio, convocó el Concilio Vaticano II, que introdujo cambios radicales en la Iglesia, introduciéndola en la era moderna.
- ..# Durante la crisis de los misiles de Cuba, el Papa Juan XXIII instó públicamente al presidente Kennedy y al primer ministro Jruschov a que actuaran con moderación. Jruschov admitió más tarde que este mensaje le ayudó a decidir la retirada de los misiles y a desactivar la crisis.
- ..# El Papa Juan XXIII fue el Hombre del Año de la revista Time en 1962.
- ..# Era conocido por su sentido del humor. Al responder a un periodista que le preguntó inocentemente: "¿Cuántas personas trabajan en el Vaticano?", Su Santidad respondió: "Más o menos la mitad".
- ..# Todavía es conocido por muchos como Il Papa Buono, "El Papa bueno".

San Juan XXIII, ruega por nosotros.

En la paz de Cristo,
Jay Larmee, Shelley Benson, Rob Sullivan y
Derrick Blakley

OPEN DOORS UPDATE: OUR REFUGEE FAMILY HAS ARRIVED!

*"You shall also love the stranger, for you were strangers in the land of Egypt."
Deuteronomy 10:19*

You'll remember that we at St. John XXIII are partnering with St. Simon's Episcopal Church in Arlington Heights in an ecumenical effort to welcome a refugee family to the United States. Great news: Our family has arrived!

The husband and wife, Ali and Fatima, are Sunni Muslims from Syria. They have three children, two daughters (ages 12 and 8) and a 2-year old son. They fled their homeland in 2012 and have been living as refugees in Jordan ever since. The family speaks, reads and writes Arabic and Kurdish but does not yet speak English.

The Open Doors team has worked for weeks collecting furniture and household needs. After their apartment was secured by our partner in the resettlement effort, Refugee One, the team performed a thorough cleaning and moved in the furniture. The family arrived at O'Hare on Tuesday, October 18. A committee of volunteers from St. John XXIII and St. Simon greeted them at the airport, escorted them to their new apartment and served them a hot Middle Eastern meal.

Please pray for Ali and Fatima and their family, for their smooth adjustment to a new land after years in a Jordanian refugee camp. And pray as well for our faithful volunteers who are helping assist in their transition to American life. We will let you know more about them as we get to know them. And as their needs become more clear, we will let you know how you can further assist as well.

Black Catholic History Month

In 1990, the National Black Catholic Clergy Caucus of the United States designated November as Black Catholic History Month, a time of prayer for all saints and souls of Africa and the African Diaspora. The Black Catholics of St. John XXIII Parish endeavor to recognize the goals of the Black Clergy and inform our congregation of the richness of Black Catholic faith and spirituality.

According to the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops, there are over 3 million African American Catholics in the U.S. with roughly 1.7 million being descended from slavery in North America. There are 250 African American priests, 437 deacons, and 75 men of African descent in seminary formation for the priesthood in the U.S. There are also 400 African American religious sisters and 50 religious brothers in the U.S.

On November 1, let us recognize saints of African decent such as Venerable Mother Henriette Delille, a free woman of color who founded the Sisters of the Holy Family; Martin de Porres, canonized by Pope John XXIII and known for his charitable work for the sick and the poor; and St. Augustine, the first doctor of the Church from North Africa, who was a renowned theologian and prolific writer.

Is SPRED calling you?

What if your desire to deepen your faith could be coupled with your desire to serve?
What if this could lead you to a ministry that embraces both?

Our SPRED (Special Religious Development) group of 22 and older members is seeking 4 new catechists to continue our mission. If you are called to join us, please contact Jeanie Brabeck j.brabeck@hotmail.com, 773.266.0819 for more information.

SPRED is a small faith community that includes those with intellectual or developmental disabilities/ special needs. SPRED meets weekly from mid-to-late September to early May with breaks for holidays. In addition to catechists, we need drivers to pick up and drop off our Friends.

In sharing our life stories as a community, we come to know how similar we all are, how we belong to a greater whole, and how, with our Creator God's help, we find hope and peace.

SPRED is: An opportunity to

- ...# Deepen your own faith in an inclusive small faith community
- ...# Be a friend to someone with special needs who has something to teach you
- ...# Help the parish be one that truly invites all to the table and celebrates the gifts of each one of us

Qualities of a SPRED catechist

- ...# Calm and open minded
- ...# Open to contemplative prayer and symbolic catechesis
- ...# Willing and able to commit to the SPRED model and community
